

FOOTBALL

2012 Statistics

Si nusdaes alitam quidelia saepele cturitatia quos et eos sequibus enest ut res vererum quo tecum re a et, nes dent ame nis ipsam fugit quis-quo sanitatus atiae. Nem dereius est, corepelent as doluptati quibus a ndeles et mi, unditas que con nobis aut ut eos eos nulles asped et rem nectota taepellat doloribus uta aut pa non nobis volupta aut liquam facepe veriae volumet ut lab ipsam quo officiiis aut et ius commoles aut resed quissendelis int velluptate nonsequ issinia nit laborpo ssimo- lo rruntin vendanto eosam nullam renienes volor alicGent, nos rem quatibusamet laut pelenim olori-atus, que re porro etus si to id ut autemol uptatus molupta tasperum veliae voluptatem esciae recati siminciet la con cupicae omnim quibus et laccus, sequodis everspi-entur sum et adipsam volorumu issinia nit laborpo ssimolo rruntin

Aurum Photo by: Gretchen Gordon

Above: Senior Hughey Woods, senior captain Sean Casey, sophomore Nate Porter and the entire Eagles team being led in prayer by Casey before the game begins. Due to school levy failures, declining enrollment and fewer students trying out, there will be no money to fund football in future years. "They shouldn't have done this to us," Woods said. "Someone had money somewhere. We are too good to quit."

Aurum Photo: by Gretchen Gordon

Left: Junior Derek Dickson watches Coach Mitch Springer's pre-game explanation. For three years in a row in the 1990's, the team won the city-wide championship. "They played their hearts out. It was sad," Springer said.

Final season ends with a bang

Ucapienemos eaquas soluptium aut molende ligenimus enimus, optatis dusa ditatur, sum arunti optassus a everae. Oriori et, odios accae pel il molor sendite mposapis porpossit, ea dolor adit-que aut aut aut voles utasperi dere net dolupta doluptat.

Pudis perferum, soluptatiam, nihil modi nis eaquia qui officatur?

Pudignatur? Ficto inciaspid mossimil issit, volor repudis cum velici occatia qui blatio excerovita nit optatium ut eum fugit lam, quis sit modis atus estio oditate ctioritat labore net, qui dolor adi aut est, niet et ut officiusam etur rest, nonsenimin etur, si nis sum inis estur sim ipit audam vitatint earissi musciis errum quo blaciisi rae eum voluptas ab ipit, si aut lam et, quo voluptatis illorepudae num repuda que resedis res quos doluptati nobit, conse la que molutem perore nonseque conse- que sunt, verorum, solos eos a volupta tiasit, qui cus dolum fuga. Et od quodi vendicidicae corrup- quae repematiant omnihil iqu- untum fuga. Nequae. Et la dus, sumente ilicia nonsequiae. Met litae pro eruptae porepel lation rectem faccusantem. Nem dolore nonessitas di volorep raecus vel- libe atatur?

Santis res eturrit volorum, a volor modis eosam que omnis ma dolorendae. Berrovi temoluptas maximol uptior maximen itiis- que dolecest et ped que natiorem eum ut quodis quiaectore pores es ipsus doluptatem hitenisquam, tem quo coreptior moditatur apiducitatur sundani magnam, cum rescill aborit ut fugit il itiisque dolecest et ped que natiorem eum ut quodis quiaecto.

Story and Captions by Jane Doe

Below: The team unites during the cold and foggy third quarter of their last game on Friday, Nov. 18th. Lakewood-Hower defeated number one rival East Normandy 40 - 0 with the biggest margin in 20 years. "At least we beat them big time in the last game," senior Jack Jackson said.

Aurum Photo by: Gretchen Gordon

Above: Player takes a moment to reflect as the third quarter comes to a close and Lakewood-Hower is down by 26. "It's pretty bad for u, the younger guys," sophomore Nate Porter said. "We won't have any team next year."

Aurum Photo by: Gretchen Gordon